

National Italian American Bar Association

Men and women sharing a common heritage in a chosen profession

2019/2020 Justice Samuel Anthony Alito Jr. $5,000 Scholarship

Eligibility: U.S. citizens of Italian descent (at least one Italian or Italian-American grandparent) or an Italian citizen enrolled in a United States law school program at an accredited academic institution for the Fall 2019 or Spring 2020 terms.

Deadline: December 15, 2019. All requirements must be met or the application will not be considered. All scholarship materials must be submitted by email, as indicated below, and completed applications must be submitted by December 15, 2019. No exceptions will be made. The National Italian American Bar Association takes no responsibility for incomplete or late applications.

Application & Requirements:

- Application Form
- Official Transcripts: Submit one official transcript from each academic institution (undergraduate, graduate, and law school) attended through August 2019.
- Resume: Submit a current resume outlining extracurricular activities, work experience, volunteer service, and honors.
- Letters of Recommendation: Submit up to 1 letter of recommendation from teachers, professors, or educational administrators.
- Essay: Submit an original essay of up to two pages, Times New Roman 12 Font, discussing your Italian heritage, including the location in Italy of your origins, how you or your family came to the United States and one core value that you have learned as a result of growing up in an Italian family that you carry with you and use every day.

How to Apply: All materials and applications will be accepted by email to the National Italian American Bar Association's Administrative Assistant Cindy Martin at Cindylu616@comcast.net.

Process: Applications are screened by the National Italian American Bar Association's Scholarship Committee. The scholarship recipient will be notified by January 10, 2020.